

A.P. Language and Composition Summer Assignment 2024-2025

Answer all three Free-Response Questions for the 2021 AP English Language and Composition Exam: essays should be comprehensive and address the prompt completely and thoroughly. If you cannot access the link, the packet is easily found online. To maximize your alignment with the real AP exam, you are encouraged to set aside a single two hour and fifteen minute block to read the prompts, plan your writing, and answer the questions in essay format. This means that you should devote approximately 40 minutes to each essay (an additional 15 minutes is allotted for reading the synthesis essay packet). If you take a little longer, that is fine, but please do not turn this into a burdensome task.

As you complete these essays, many of you might be tempted to research your answers or use generative AI to assist you. Please do not do this! The purpose of this class is to strengthen your ability to structure your thoughts and express them effectively. These essays will count as baseline scores, but students who complete this assignment will receive a good grade. This is just a starting point in our journey, and we will benefit from an honest snapshot of your current skills.

To help you further understand the expectations for these tasks, I have created a webpage with some embedded videos that provide you with some helpful tips. The site is linked above, but the full url is <https://sites.google.com/knoxschools.org/aplang/home>. Please check it out!
